Welcome to Anantara The Marker Dublin Hotel

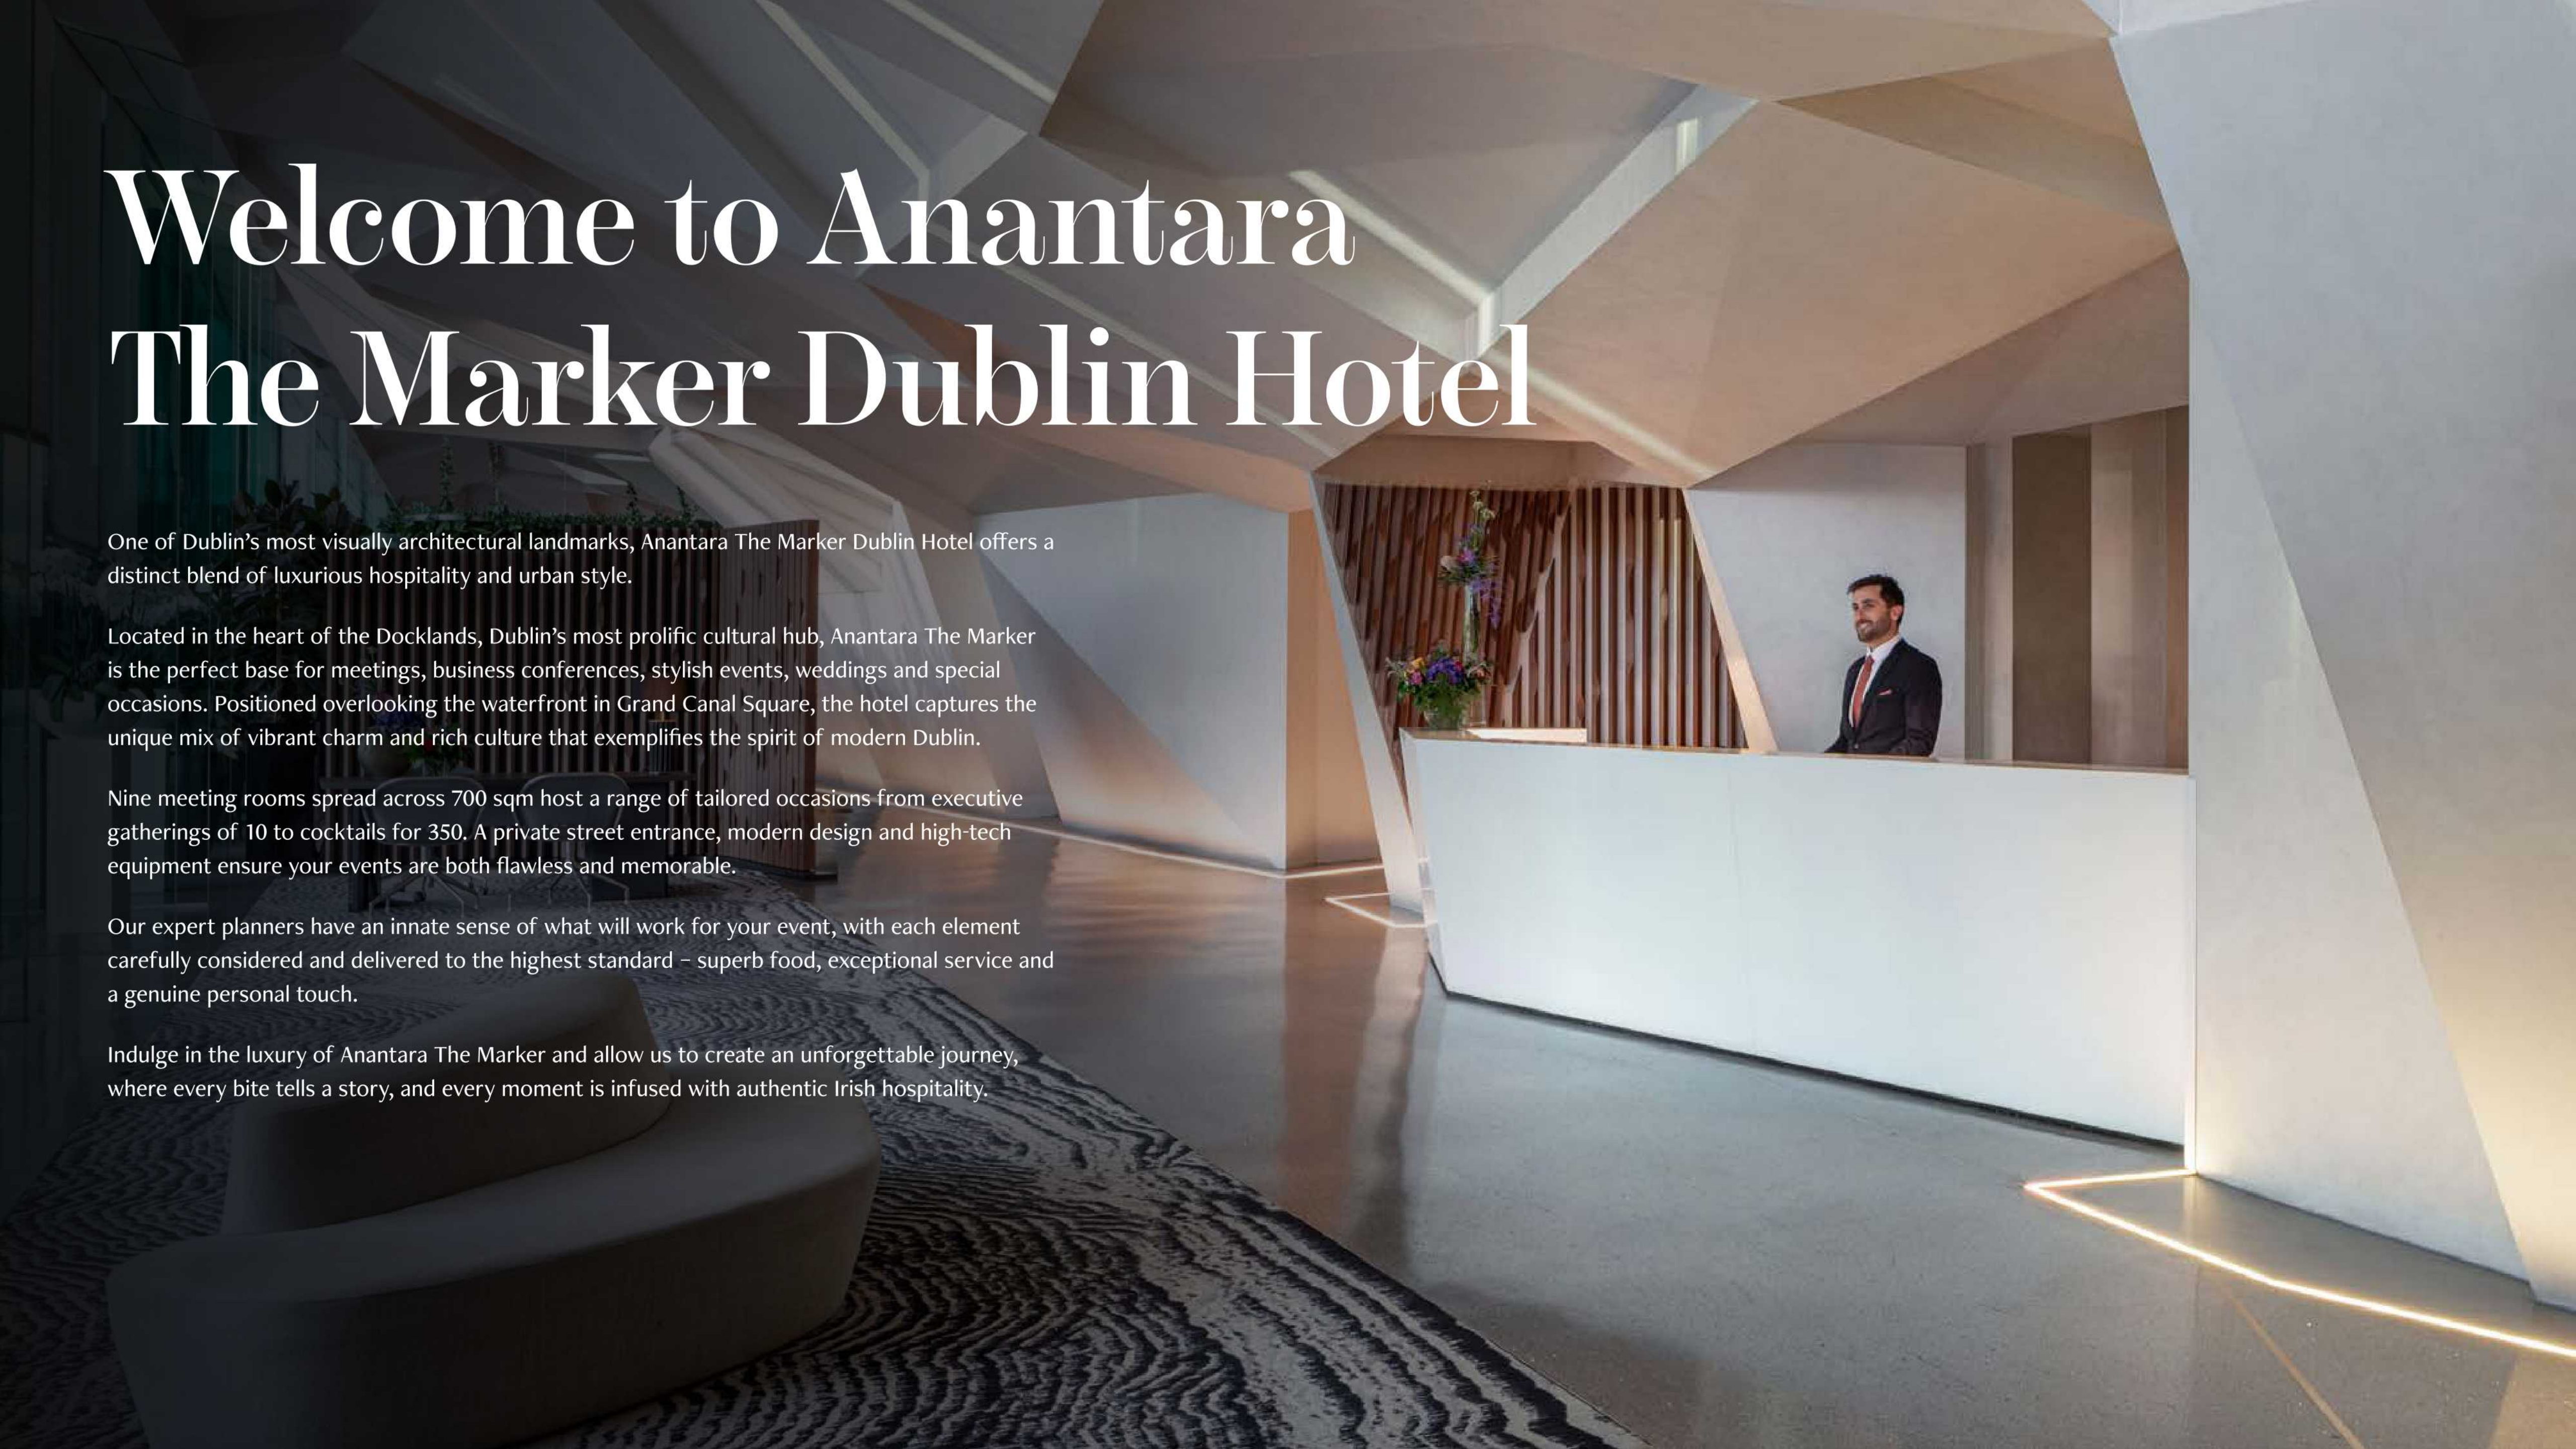

One of Dublin's most visually architectural landmarks, Anantara The Marker Dublin Hotel offers a distinct blend of luxurious hospitality and urban style.

Located in the heart of the Docklands, Dublin's most prolific cultural hub, Anantara The Marker is the perfect base for meetings, business conferences, stylish events, weddings and special occasions. Positioned overlooking the waterfront in Grand Canal Square, the hotel captures the unique mix of vibrant charm and rich culture that exemplifies the spirit of modern Dublin.

Nine meeting rooms spread across 700 sqm host a range of tailored occasions from executive gatherings of 10 to cocktails for 350. A private street entrance, modern design and high-tech equipment ensure your events are both flawless and memorable.

Our expert planners have an innate sense of what will work for your event, with each element carefully considered and delivered to the highest standard – superb food, exceptional service and a genuine personal touch.

Indulge in the luxury of Anantara The Marker and allow us to create an unforgettable journey, where every bite tells a story, and every moment is infused with authentic Irish hospitality.

Dinner

Anantara The Marker Dublin Hotel offers guests an exceptional dining experience.

From a sumptuous dinner buffet to a formal and elegant sit-down occasion, we have options for all preferences. The highlight of our culinary offerings is undoubtedly a dinner in Forbes Street by Gareth Mullins. Forbes Street showcases an ever-evolving menu with the best local produce from land and sea.

Our team provides an unforgettable gastronomic journey with a 3-course dining experience including a starter, soup or sorbet, main course and dessert from €86 per person.

Your menu price is determined by your choice of main course.
