L'oscar is an extravagantly
restored former church,
devoted to the divine

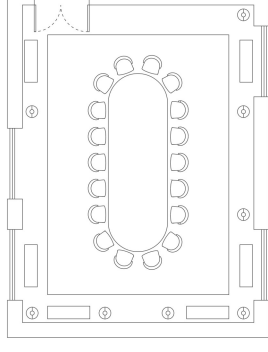

L'oscar is a five-star hotel, a Grade II* listed former church nestled between Covent Garden and Bloomsbury. L'oscar is conceived with the belief that a hotel is a theatre: a stage where performances of the utmost quality are played out and every detail is considered for the enjoyment.

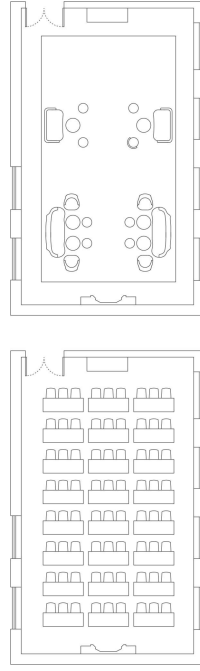

The Committee Room

Located on the first floor, The Committee Room is steeped in history with original features including a Royal Doulton terracotta fireplace with a scene from John Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress, carved in 1903. The formality of the oak panelled walls is wonderfully offset by the large, playful peacock painting, the Lalique crystal bird lights, and the bespoke furnishings. The room can accommodate up to 26 guests for lunch or dinner and 40 guests for a cocktail reception.

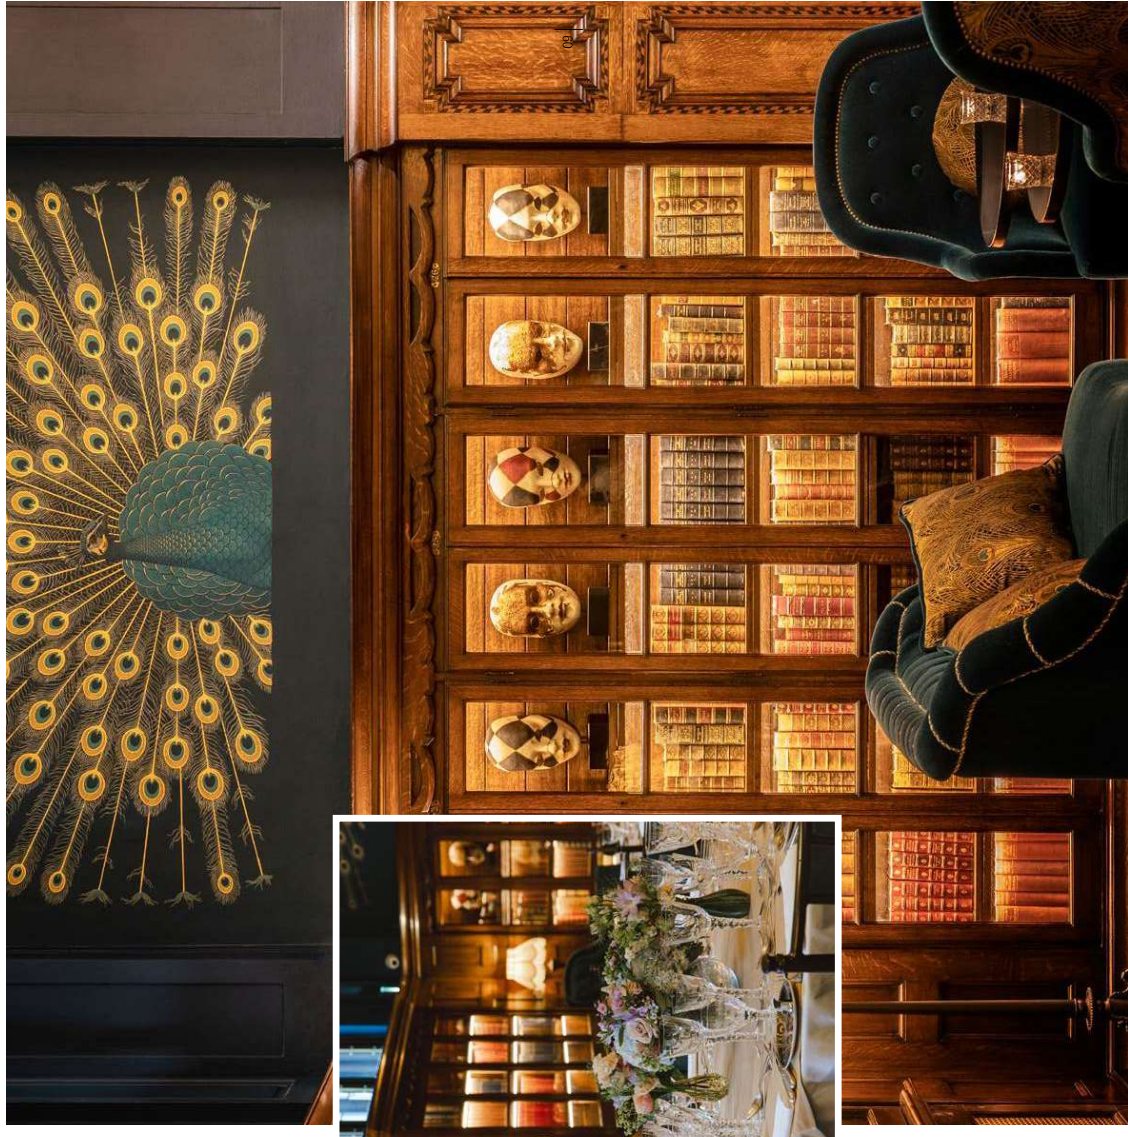

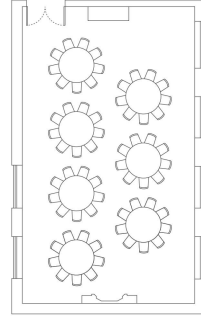

The Library

Situated on the second floor of the Grade II Listed building, The Library showcases a breath-taking level of craftsmanship. The room is surrounded with exquisite oak panels and glass cabinets displaying a vast collection of historic books. Colourful Venetian masks contribute to the room's theatrical essence, while hand-painted details on the walls, an intricate ceiling, and electric blue hues complete the ambience. This unique space serves as an ideal venue for private parties or weddings.

The Baptist

The Baptist stands at the heart of L'oscar, an impressive octagonal chapel dating back to 1903, featuring a glass-topped dome and holding significant historical importance.

Upstairs, the chapel offers an exhilarating dining experience, allowing guests to view the downstairs area from a balcony above. The Baptist Bar, located downstairs, radiates around a grand sparkling silver bar, crafted from a mosaic of mirrors. This space is available for private events, making it an ideal venue for large weddings, glamorous birthday celebrations, or corporate parties. Undoubtedly, it stands out as one of the most unique and distinctive spaces in London.
